Chad Elliott is the managing director of the mergers and acquisition group with Lancaster Pollard, a national financial services firm headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. Lancaster Pollard helps health care, senior living and housing providers expand and improve their services by delivering a full range of investment banking, mortgage banking, private equity, balance sheet financing, M&A and investment advisory services. Mr. Elliott leads the firm's national effort in sell-side and buy-side advisory services for seniors housing and care properties.

Prior to joining Lancaster Pollard, Mr. Elliott was a director of investment banking and capital markets for Recovery Centers for America, a health care startup focused on the mental health and substance abuse sector. In that role, he was instrumental in raising over $215 million in capital to acquire the initial portfolio of facilities. He also has M&A, investment banking and private equity experience from Metalmark Capital, Morgan Stanley Capital Partners and Goldman Sachs.

Mr. Elliott earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Princeton and an MBA from Harvard Business School. He will be based out of Lancaster Pollard's Philadelphia office.
