Thomas R. Green is chairman of the board for Lancaster Pollard, an investment banking, mortgage banking, financial advisory and investment advisory firm serving the health-care, senior-living and affordable-housing sectors. Mr. Green has more than 30 years of senior management experience in corporate finance, banking and health care. He previously served as the firm's chief executive officer.

Mr. Green speaks regularly on capital market funding methods for health care, senior living and affordable housing and helped tailor Lancaster Pollard's portfolio of services to these sectors. The firm, founded in 1988, has expanded to six offices nationwide, maintaining its impeccable reputation as one of the nation's leading underwriters of tax-exempt debt securities for the health care and senior living industries. Its growth and expertise have earned the organization recognition as one of Columbus Business First's Fast 50 and winner of an Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year Award 2006®. In 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014, Lancaster Pollard was named to the Inc. 5,000 list of the fastest-growing companies in the nation.

Prior to joining Lancaster Pollard, Mr. Green was president and CEO of Firststar Bank Central Ohio, now a $1.1 billion region of U.S. Bancorp, and executive vice president for Central Benefits Mutual Insurance, a group health insurance company headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Green received his bachelor's degree and master's degree in economics and finance from The Ohio State University.
